OF

POSSIBILITIES

A Story of Historic Greatness

Historically referred to as Belle View, Robinson Grove is home to a fascinating past.

Meet Edward Robinson - known for his impactful work as an explorer, pastoralist, developer, and politician, he arrived in Fremantle at the age of four.

In 1886, Robinson purchased 750 acres in Helena Valley, establishing himself as an early settler in the Perth Hills region. Ahead of his time, he founded Belle View Dairy Farm, developing a dairy farm and homestead residence in 1887.

Now, his work lives on to inspire greatness. With two heritage-listed buildings on site, the Belle View Homestead and farm stables are a meaningful reminder of the rich past that has shaped the current vision of the estate.

Today, Robinson Grove is a place filled with hope, ready for a future of possibilities.

CREATED

Your future home is closer than you could have ever imagined

Established by urban visionaries, Robinson Grove combines history to craft a dream for the future of living.

That new beginning you've been searching for starts now. Enjoy a little slice of history located in a boutique estate. Allow yourself to escape the fast-paced world of inner-city living, slow down, and connect with an abundance of history and nature.

TO

As your dream home comes to life, journey your way through a new piece of history each day. Wander the timeless streets, stop by one of the magnificent lakes, the amphitheatre or seven parks and public open spaces dotted throughout the estate or explore the natural and architectural elements of this exciting new residential community.

Connect with your community and experience a world of adventure

At Robinson Grove, lifestyle meets convenience. You'll be spoilt for choice with an extensive range of retail, dining, entertainment, and education options nearby. When you need to journey to the city for work or play, a range of travel options makes accessibility a breeze.

A few minutes away is Swan Valley, Western Australia's oldest wine region. Home to some of WA's finest artisan producers, the region is filled with gourmet produce and local wines. Showcasing the best WA has to offer, it is the perfect opportunity to entertain family and friends or meet with your new community.

THE SATTERLEY

When it comes to creating communities, practice makes perfect. Satterley, Australia's largest private residential land developer, creates some of Australia's finest residential communities - beautifully landscaped places to call home.

With more than 40 years' experience in real estate and land development, founder Nigel Satterley has a proven track record of delivering award-winning communities. Under his direction, Satterley has planned and created 165 estates, sold more than 60,000 lots and celebrated more than 100 industry awards.

Trust, quality and strong financial performance are the keystones of the company. The brand has become one that people know and trust.

It's no wonder that more than a quarter of a million people choose to call a Satterley community home.

See the difference for yourself at Robinson Grove.
